Catering Revised Charges

Revised School Meal Charges - September 2012

Sefton Catering Services meal charges are the lowest on Merseyside for secondary pupils. At Christ the King we operate an in house catering service and to remain in line with Sefton Catering with effect from 1st September 2012 the cost of the meal of the day will increase from £1.65 to £1.70. The charges for cafeteria foods other than the meal of the day will also be increased by 3%.

You may be eligible for free school meals, entitlement is worth £331.50 per year. To be eligible, parents or guardians of any pupil must live in the Sefton area and be in receipt of one of the following benefits:

- Income Support
- Jobseeker's Allowance
- Employment Support Allowance
- Child Tax Credit only
- Guarantee Element of State Pension Credit
- Support under Part V1 of the immigration & Asylum Act 1999
