Dear Parent/Carer

Year 7 EBacc Week – Week Commencing 28 June

I would like to introduce myself; I am Mrs Cane, Director of the EBacc suite which comprises the study of History, Geography, Spanish and French. The EBacc suite of subjects is highly valued and respected by employers and Russell Group universities as they provide pupils with a strong foundation to develop their transferable skills which will support study at Key Stages 4 and 5, thus enabling pupils to keep their options open for a wide range of degrees and careers.

During the week beginning 28 June the EBacc subjects will be delivering cross-curricular lessons focusing on the Tudor Era from a historical, geographical and language perspective. We will bring our lessons to life during this week with food tasting from this period as we travel back in time to 1500s. If anyone in your family has any memorabilia, artefacts or clothing related to the country of study, we would love your child to bring these in and even share stories of joint family ventures to historical sites or even further afield. During the lessons we would like to take photographs where appropriate. If, however, you do not wish to give your consent for this, please respond accordingly by filling out the following Google Form: <https://forms.gle/2tf2bRBieHxxgx1z8> (If the link doesn't work by clicking directly on it, please copy and paste it into a separate browser.)

As a faculty we believe the Ebacc week will allow your child to foster a real passion for Humanities and Languages. Staff will be encouraging high levels of participation during these lessons and appreciate any support you can provide at home during this week.

Yours faithfully

C Cane
